

The 5th International Conference on MSW Program Development 2014
Social Work Response to Crisis, Trauma and Disaster: Implications on Curriculum Design for Social Service Administration

The 5th International Conference on MSW Program Development 2014 Social Work Response to Crisis, Trauma and Disaster: Implications on Curriculum Design for Social Service Administration was held successfully Sichuan University-Hong Kong Polytechnic University Institute for Disaster Management and Reconstruction (IDMR), Sichuan University on July 17-19, 2014

This conference was organized by China Association of Social Work Education, Peking U- HK Polytechnic U China Social Work Research Centre, and Sichuan U-HK Polytechnic U Institute for Disaster Management and Reconstruction; coorganized by International Association of Schools of Social Work, Department of Applied Social Sciences, Hong Kong Polytechnic University, and Department of Sociology, Peking University; sponsored by The Keswick Foundation, Si Yuan Foundation and ZeShan Foundation.

Over 200 participants from universities, research institutes, organizations in Social Work attended the conference. Experienced trainers from various countries were cordially invited in the comprehensive workshops for the participants.